

Navigating Internet Explorer (IE)

Quick ways to get back to your homepage

When navigating the web, a quick way back to your Homepage is by clicking on the

Button on the Explorer bar OR you can use ALT+HOME

Quick ways to perform Searches on the web.

You can open Search in Explorer bar while viewing and exploring web pages using

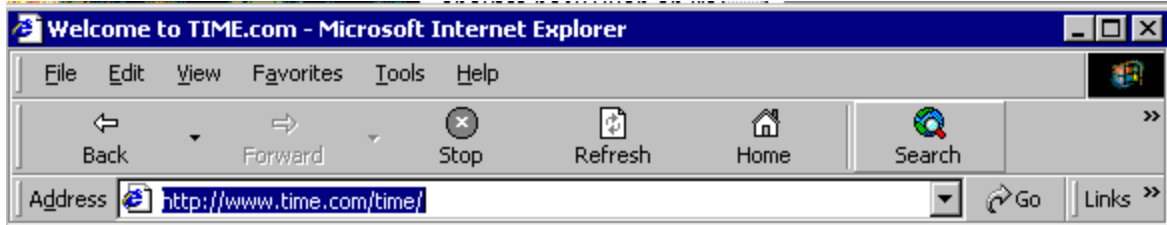

Internet Explorer by clicking on the Button on the Explorer bar. Or by CTRL+E

Conventional Method:

Selecting text in the Address bar requires highlighting the text

Keyboard Shortcut: ALT+D

Conventional Method:

Opening a New Web Page, Click on File, New and Window on the Explorer bar

Keyboard Shortcut: CTRL+N.

Conventional Method:

To display the Address bar history when viewing and exploring web pages requires clicking on the down arrow on the Address bar.

Keyboard Shortcut: F4 will display the history

Conventional Method:

Refresh the current window click on  Button on the Explorer bar.

Keyboard Shortcut: F5